Joseph S. Daubach

The Sun Bowl Association conducts 18 events throughout the year which involve children and adults, with the overall goal of providing quality low cost events for everyone to take part in and enjoy while bringing outside dollars and tourism to El Paso.

Joe Daubach has been the Special Events Director for the Sun Bowl Association for close to six years. He is responsible for organizing the Little Caesars Sun Bowl International Soccer Tournament, FirstLight Federal Credit Union Sun Bowl Thanksgiving Day Parade, Sun Bowl Fan Fiesta, Sports World Sun Bowl 5K Run & Walk and is in charge of game day operations for the Brut Sun Bowl.

Joe has done volunteer work for many different organizations in El Paso including the El Paso Westside Rotary Club and serving as a board member of the El Paso Boys & Girls Club and strives to be a good role model to his kids, as well as the people he works with and volunteers for.

A native of Illinois, Joe proudly calls El Paso home and says the city is "important to me and my family and I try to do my best to make it the greatest place to live." He and his wife, Mena, a fourth-grade teacher in the El Paso Independent School District, have two children, Hailey and Joey.

Personal Information About Myself:

- I have lived in El Paso for about 5 ½ years
- I am married
- I met my wife in Illinois and it was because of her that I now live in El Paso. She was born and raised here before she left for college and had always wanted to move back.
- My wife's name is Mena Daubach and she is a 4th grade teacher at Roberts Elementary
- I have two children: Hailey is 3 years old & Joey is 8 months old
- I have done volunteer work for many different organizations in El Paso
- My hobbies are: 1. restoring my classic car and 2. working on my bass boat and trying to go fishing
- I strive to be a good role model to my kids as well as the people I work with and volunteer for. I like to demonstrate that honesty, hard work, dedication and commitment does pay off and others will follow if you lead.
- El Paso is important to me and my family and I try to do my best to make it the greatest place to live.

Work Experience:

Sun Bowl Association — El Paso, Texas
Special Events Director — July 2, 2002 to current

I am responsible for researching, organizing and conducting both sporting and non-sporting events throughout the year. Overall, the Sun Bowl Association conducts around 18 different events which involve children and adults of all ages. Our goal is to provide quality low cost events that anyone can be part of and enjoy while bringing in outside dollars and tourism to El Paso. This goal helps to improve the quality of life here in our fine city.

Some of the events I am responsible for are:
1. Little Caesars Sun Bowl International Soccer Tournament (179 teams)
2. FirstLight Federal Credit Union Sun Bowl Thanksgiving Day Parade (average attendance of 250,000)
3. Sun Bowl Fan Fiesta (average attendance of 10,000 – 15,000)
4. Sports World Sun Bowl 5K Run & Walk (approximately 200 runners)
5. Brut Sun Bowl (Game Day Operations)
