Dear Ms. Porras:

This is written to inform you that I am interested in providing independent hearing officer services to the Civil Service Commission of the City of El Paso, Texas. My qualifications and professional experience are summarized in the attached resume.

By way of a brief overview of my relevant experience, I have over 20 years of high-level professional experience advising governmental and private employers in labor administration matters. I also have personally handled collective bargaining negotiations and advised clients in union disputes. With regard to my hearing officer experience, I have handled over 300 administrative hearings for my clients, and personally served as a hearing officer and human resources investigator. While most of my legal career has been devoted to representing management, I have routinely represented employees in disputes, with an emphasis on representing managerial and professional employees in contract and severance matters.

If you have any questions or need any additional information from me about my proposed services, please let me know.
