Representative: Ray Mancera
District: 6
Staff Contact: Andrew Salloum, (915) 541-4633, salloumam@elpasotexas.gov

Andrew Salloum, Planner, noted that staff is recommending denial of rezoning the subject property R-4 (Residential) to C-1 (Commercial) but instead is recommending S-D (Special Development) zone district with a condition per Transportation's recommendation that no access be permitted from the residential street Carnes Road.

The recommendation is based on the surrounding residential uses and school immediately adjacent to the subject property. Plan El Paso land use designation is G-3, Post-War. The predominant land use in the area is residential.

Ray Mancera, representing the owner, does not agree with staff's comments and noted that he prefers a C-1 zone. He presented a short power point presentation and gave reasons why a C-1 rezoning is better for this property.

Commissioner Nance asked if there was anyone in the public who wished to speak in favor or against this request. There was no response.

- 11. Planning Report:
 - a. American Planning Association Training Webinar
 - b. Report on rezoning cases denied by CPC and going forward to City Council

David Coronado, City Development Program Manager, noted that because of the relocation of City Hall, future meetings for the City Plan Commission will be held at the Main Library, 501 N. Oregon, until such time that the council chambers at the El Paso Times building is ready.

Staff will notify the Commission where they can park while the meetings are held at the Maud Sullivan conference room at the main library.

Mr. Coronado notified the Commission that on Saturday, April 13, 2013, there will be an all day training program delivered live from the National Planning Conference. This will be an on line session which will be paid for by staff and lunch will be provided. Registrants have the option of attending the session on Saturday, April 13, 2013, Friday, June 14, 2013, or Saturday, June 15, 2013.

Mr. Coronado gave a brief power point presentation and provided the Commission with hard copies of the 2012 rezoning cases heard and denied by the City Plan Commission. He gave a brief summary and noted that the Commission reviewed a total of thirty-four cases of which twenty-four were approved, six were denied, three were deleted, and one was postponed.

Commissioner Borden asked why the Engineering Department has not come back to the Commission with an update regarding the parks pond issue. Staff agreed to bring something back at the next City Plan Commission meeting.
