Gentlemen:-

You are hereby notified of a special meeting of the City Council called by the Mayor at 10 o'clock A. M. today, for the purpose of considering the Water Committee's Report and any other business that in your opinion may require attention.

Yours Very truly,
Jos U. Sweeney, Mayor.

Clerk read the following communication:

El Paso, Texas Dec. 10, 1909.

To the Mayor and City Council.

Com. from Water Com.

In asmuch as you have nullified the work of this committee by your action in the making up of the budget for the expenses of the ensuing year and refusing to modify the same, we suggest that the election called for Monday and Tuesday, December 13 and 14 be called off.

Jas. R. Harper, Felix Martinez,
C. E. Kelly, H. A. Slater, Juan S. Hart.

On motion duly made and carried the order calling for election by Mayor was declared off.

Mayor authorized purchase property in Highland Park.

Motion was duly made and seconded that the Mayor be authorized to purchase property in Highland Park for fire purposes to cost $2000.00.

There being no further business Council adjourned.

Approved. Jos U Sweeney
Mayor.

Percy McKee, City Clerk.
