OPINION

Appellant appeals her conviction in Municipal Court for not having a current motor vehicle inspection sticker. A fine of $50.00 was assessed.

At the same time she was issued a citation for the instant offense, she is also cited for driving the same vehicle equipped with dealer's temporary cardboard tags for personal use. This Court addresses that issue in a separate Opinion.

Section 503.062(c), Tex. Trans. Code indicates that a vehicle that is being conveyed under this Section is exempt from the inspection requirements of Chapter 548. This Court recognized that exemption and held that such a vehicle need not be inspected. Silva v. State, 97-MCA-2420.

Therefore, the Judgment of the Trial Court is hereby reversed and rendered in Appellant's favor.

SIGNED this 21st day of January, 2010.
