PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Rebecca joined TeamNAFTA in 1997. Over the past twelve years Rebecca has proven her ability to surpass clients' expectations. She has been involved in property management, sales and leasing services. Up until 2000, she worked with TeamNAFTA's Tenant Representation platform representing industrial users throughout the El Paso/Juarez region. In 2001, Rebecca began focusing 100% of her efforts on landlord representation. Her experience working on both sides of the deal have resulted in a unique ability to spot potential opportunities for her clients. Rebecca is a creative problem solver and has the ability to drive revenue growth, work out conflicts, enhance morale and exceed profit goals. She is a determined professional and has a proven record of managing personnel and projects by employing a team-oriented leadership style with emphasis on results. She is constantly looking for ways to grow business, reduce expenses and improve staff productivity.

Her clear and thorough approach to communication gives clients confidence and builds consensus among decision-makers. Her multi-faceted background enables her to provide the highest level of service to her clients, with the strongest of business ethics, process, knowledge, experience and creativity.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Rebecca is solely responsible for leasing 361,262 sq/ft of the most prestigious multi-tenant office high-rise in downtown El Paso, and is the most active office leasing agent in El Paso.
