PROFESSIONAL PROFILE
ANGELINA VELARDE-WHITE

Ms. White is an experienced administrator with over twenty years' experience in the Texas banking industry. Recognized as a successful executive and community leader in her native El Paso, she has held a variety of management positions with the largest banks in that city. Her specialized skills include:

- Corporate banking development and administration
- Consistent revenue generation and cost-reduction expertise
- Branch and main office staff management and training
- Proven capability to assess and successfully effect turn-arounds of faltering organizations
- Effective bilingual communications proficiency

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

First Commercial Capital (1994 to Present), Vice-President:

- As a specialist in Small Business Administration lending, opened and managed Loan Production office in El Paso
- Generated and obtained approval on $4.9 million in first 12 months

Sun West Bank of El Paso (1992-1993), Vice-President:

- Responsible for $3.2 million loan portfolio with emphasis in small business expansion funding
- Successfully marketed Small Business Administration guaranteed loans through speaking engagements and public appearances

Rio Grande Girl Scout Council (1990-1991), Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer:

- By infusing professional discipline and effective administrative techniques, turned a dysfunctional organization into an efficient, cohesive unit within twelve months
- Responsible for a salaried staff of 23 and 2000 volunteers who delivered high-quality programs to 5000 girl members
- Directed the corporate planning management system for this Council, which encompassed five counties in southern New Mexico and two in west Texas
- Managed a budget over $1,000,000

Merabank, El Paso, Texas (1987-1989), Vice President/Branch Manager:

- Organized, implemented and managed a corporate banking division covering a six-branch region
- Managed a home-office branch of eighteen staff members and $96 million in deposits
- Provided leadership, motivation and training for five off-site branch managers with responsibilities relating to corporate loans and deposit generation
- Developed and implemented marketing strategies for new business development
- Raised Merabank's performance level from "needs improvement" to "excellent" within a single year, as established by an internal operations audit
- Eliminated 100% of staff overtime with efficient scheduling and production management

First City National Bank of El Paso, Texas (1972-1986), Vice President:

- As Vice President for Commercial Loans, was responsible for the administration and negotiation of a loan portfolio of $12 million in metropolitan, professional and executive divisions. This portfolio grew at an annual rate of 45% from 1983 through 1986, experiencing a very low loss ratio throughout the entire period
- Organized and implemented a Home Mortgage Real Estate Department, developing a thorough knowledge of Real Estate lending practices
- As Chairman of the El Paso Group for the National Association of Bank Women, received distinction with its Group Excellence Award in 1984, together with five merit awards

Subject: CPC Resignation

Dear Representative Lilly,

As we have discussed, I tender my resignation from the City Plan Commission effective immediately following tomorrow's May 31, 2007 CPC meeting.

Thank you for permitting me to serve this nearly four years. It has been an honor and privilege.

John Neal
