Section 2. Disciplinary Notice.

Disciplinary actions in the nature of a discharge, involuntary reduction, or suspension taken against a regular employee, other than at the end of a probationary period, will not become effective until the Department Head has first served upon such employee a written notice of discipline. The notice must contain one or more statutory reasons or grounds for discipline, together with such specifications of fact as will enable the employee to make an explanation and place him fairly upon his defense. The specifications of fact shall be of sufficient specificity so as to preclude the possibility of disciplinary action for the same act or omission in the future. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit the Department Head from using an employee's prior acts or omissions resulting in discipline in determining future disciplinary action against the employee. An employee may be disciplined for other acts or omissions not specified in the notice even if such acts arise from the same incident or event. A Department Head may not unilaterally reduce the discipline given once notice of discipline has been provided to the employee, without the employee's consent. A copy of such notice of discipline, together with the employee's explanation, if any, will be filed with the Human Resources Director. (Amended 06/24/03, 7/31/07, 8/25/09)

Section 3. Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action, Procedure and Limitation of Action.

- a. When disciplinary action in the nature of a five (5) day suspension or greater, a reduction, or discharge is being contemplated by the Department Head, the employee must be served with a notice of proposed disciplinary action which shall conform with the notice requirements set forth in Section 2 and Section 3 (b) of this Rule. In addition to the notice of proposed disciplinary action, the employee shall be furnished with the written materials and tangible things in the possession of the Department Head that form the factual and evidentiary basis for the proposed disciplinary action. No matter may be withheld from the employee that is inconsistent with the theory of discipline or that could tend to mitigate the contemplated sanction. (Amended 8/25/09)
- b. Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the notice of proposed disciplinary action, the employee may request a conference with the Department Head. Within five (5) working days of receipt of the employee's response, the Department Head shall meet with the employee, provided further that this period may be extended with the mutual consent of the Department Head and the employee. No witnesses may be called to testify as part of the employee's explanation or response. During the conference, the employee, their representative, and the Department Head shall engage in discussions with a view toward reaching a consensus and agreement relative to the proposed disciplinary action. No part of the discussions that take place during the conference may be offered into evidence at any subsequent hearing, except for the limited purpose of determining compliance or non-compliance with the provisions of this Rule as provided in paragraph "e" and for impeachment purposes. In the event such a consensus is reached, the execution by the employee of documents finalizing the settlement agreement shall constitute a waiver of the employee's right to appeal to the Commission, and the employee shall be so advised in plain language. (Amended 09/09/03, 01/06/04, 8/25/09)

c. Respecting discharge, those departments currently using a pre-termination hearing shall not be required to have a conference as contemplated hereinabove provided that the time between notification and hearing shall be at least five (5) days and further provided that there shall be no change to current practices regarding violations of applicable federal laws. (Amended 09/09/03, 01/06/04, 8/25/09)

d. The employee is entitled to have a representative of their choice assist them in the preparation and presentation of their response, provided further that in the event the representative is an employee of the City, he shall use vacation leave or personal days for such time as may be required for the representative to attend the conference. If the employee does not have any accrued vacation or personal days, the employee will be placed on unpaid administrative leave for such time as may be required for the representative to attend the conference. The employee must provide his Department Head with two days notice of the request to take the above leave. The Department Head may disapprove the request if the leave significantly interferes with the operational needs of the department. (Amended 09/09/03, 01/06/04, 8/25/09)

e. Disciplinary action must be taken against an employee within 80 working days after the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the discipline or from the date that the Department Head knew or should have known that disciplinary action is appropriate, whichever is later, provided however that this period of limitation shall be tolled if an investigation is being conducted by a law enforcement authority into criminal charges against the employee arising out of the same incident. Once a Department Head receives notice from the employee that charges have been preferred, through an indictment or information, or that the criminal investigation has been concluded without the preferral of charges, then the time period will resume running. (Amended 09/09/03, 01/06/04, 8/25/09)

Section 5. Disqualification for Reappointment.

Any employee who is dismissed for cause or who resigns while not in good standing will be disqualified from taking a Civil Service examination for two years thereafter. His name will be removed from all eligible lists, unless, in the judgment of the Commission the cause of his dismissal or resignation under charges will not affect the possibility of his usefulness in some other position. (Amended 8/25/09)

Section 6. Non-Certification of Suspended Persons.

The names of persons suspended will not be certified from eligible lists during the period of suspension.

Section 7. Election to Forfeit Annual Leave.

Regular employees suspended for not more than ten (10) working days may elect to forfeit annual leave for a period equal to the suspension, or to the extent of the employee's annual leave balance, subject to the approval of the Department Head. The election provided for herein, shall work a waiver of the employee's right to appeal the disciplinary action to the Commission, and the employee shall be so advised in plain English on a suitable form upon which the election shall be made, as developed by the Human Resources Director and appended to the notice of suspension. The Department Head shall not unreasonably withhold approval of the employee's election. (Added 05/11/04, Amended 7/31/07)

Section 8. Formal Counseling.

Formal Counseling is not within the type of disciplinary action specified in Section 6.13-2 of the Charter which may be appealed to the Civil Service Commission. Upon an employee's request, a formal counseling shall be removed from an employee's personnel file after the expiration of twenty-four (24) months from the date of the formal counseling, provided the employee has not received any disciplinary action during that time period. A formal counseling, once removed from the employee's file, shall not be considered against the employee for purposes of determining progressive discipline or performance evaluations. When, in the judgment of the Chair, it is necessary to limit the time that members of the public may address the Commission, he shall impose reasonable time limits to ensure economy of time while allowing those who wish to address the Commission adequate opportunity to voice their views. (Amended 7/11/06)

b. Vice Chair. The Vice-Chair shall be elected from the Commission by majority vote. The Vice-Chair shall enjoy the same duties as the Chair in the absence of the Chair or upon the inability or refusal of the Chair to exercise its duties, and shall be governed by the same constraints as the Chair.

The minutes or a copy certified by the Chairman will be open to public inspection and filed with the Municipal Clerk in accordance with City ordinance. Section 4. Removal of Officers.

The Chair and Vice-Chair may be removed from office for any cause specified in Article VI, Section 6.1-10 of the Charter or for substantial failure to perform the duties of their office. Any affected employee who does not wish to take such leave may request a temporary assignment to another position subject to availability during such time. Such special leave shall not exceed 5 days each year. (Added 6/1/10)

RULE 7

Appeal of Efficiency Ratings

Appeal Process:

Subject to the provisions of this section, the employee has the right to appeal an evaluation that results in the creation of a Performance Improvement Plan, or that is given upon the completion of a Performance Improvement Plan with an overall rating below the equivalent of "Successful" he considers unfair, discriminatory, or otherwise objectionable. Any appeal must be made to the Commission within twenty calendar days after the employee has had final review on the rating with his Department Head, or person designated. For purposes of any appeal under this section, it shall be presumed by the Commission that the Efficiency Rating accurately reflects the performance of the employee. This presumption may be rebutted by the employee by a preponderance of the evidence. On appeal the Commission will consider only the rater's possible prejudice, the rater's failure to take into consideration facts or factors which should have affected the rating, the rater's considering facts or factors which should not have affected the rating. (Amended 8/25/09, 3/6/12)

Step 1. One or more members of the Commission shall meet and review the appeal. The employee and the Department Head or representative thereof shall present evidence in support of their respective positions. The hearing may be recessed to allow either side an opportunity to gather additional evidence in the event of a claim of surprise. After the hearing is concluded, no further evidence may be received from either party. In cases where less than the Commission as a whole has conducted the hearing, a report shall be submitted to the Commission setting forth all findings adduced at the hearing.

Step 2. Upon consideration of the matters adduced at the hearing, the Commission will render an order denying the appeal, sustaining the appeal and ordering a re-rating of specific factors, the summary evaluation, or the entire evaluation. It shall also set forth in its order the reasons in support thereof.

Step 3. If a re-rating is ordered by the Commission under Step 2, it must be submitted to the Human Resources Director by the Department Head within 60 days, accompanied by a memorandum signed by the Department Head summarizing the changes made to the original evaluation. The memorandum will explain any failure to re-rate according to the Commission's order. In cases where the Commission's order was not followed, in whole or in part, the Human Resources Director shall place an item on the next Commission agenda, and the Department Head shall appear before the Commission to respond to questions from the Commission. After hearing the Department Head, and any response on the part of the Employee, the Commission may take such appropriate action as it deems necessary to determine the appeal. No new evidence may be received by the Commission under this Step.

Resignation Before Hearing:

If an employee resigns employment with the City of El Paso during the pendency of any appeal under this section, the appeal shall be deemed withdrawn, and no further action shall be taken. (Amended 08/21/07)

Section 2. Disciplinary Notice.

Disciplinary actions in the nature of a discharge, involuntary reduction, or suspension taken against a regular employee, other than at the end of a probationary period, will not become effective until the Department Head has first served upon such employee a written notice of discipline. The notice must contain one or more statutory reasons or grounds for discipline, together with such specifications of fact as will enable the employee to make an explanation and place him fairly upon his defense. The specifications of fact shall be of sufficient specificity so as to preclude the possibility of disciplinary action for the same act or omission in the future. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit the Department Head from using an employee's prior acts or omissions resulting in discipline in determining future disciplinary action against the employee. An employee may be disciplined for other acts or omissions not specified in the notice even if such acts arise from the same incident or event. A Department Head may not unilaterally reduce the discipline given once notice of discipline has been provided to the employee, without the employee's consent. A copy of such notice of discipline, together with the employee's explanation, if any, will be filed with the Human Resources Director. (Amended 06/24/03, 7/31/07, 8/25/09)

Section 3. Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action, Procedure and Limitation of Action.

In addition to the notice of proposed disciplinary action, the employee shall be furnished with the written materials and tangible things in the possession of the Department Head that form the factual and evidentiary basis for the proposed disciplinary action. No matter may be withheld from the employee that is inconsistent with the theory of discipline or that could tend to mitigate the contemplated sanction. (Amended 8/25/09)

b. Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the notice of proposed disciplinary action, the employee may request a conference with the Department Head. Within five (5) working days of receipt of the employee's response, the Department Head shall meet with the employee, provided further that this period may be extended with the mutual consent of the Department Head and the employee. No witnesses may be called to testify as part of the employee's explanation or response. During the conference, the employee, their representative, and the Department Head shall engage in discussions with a view toward reaching a consensus and agreement relative to the proposed disciplinary action. No part of the discussions that take place during the conference may be offered into evidence at any subsequent hearing, except for the limited purpose of determining compliance or non-compliance with the provisions of this Rule as provided in paragraph "e" and for impeachment purposes. In the event such a consensus is reached, the execution by the employee of documents finalizing the settlement agreement shall constitute a waiver of the employee's right to appeal to the Commission, and the employee shall be so advised in plain language. (Amended 09/09/03, 01/06/04, 8/25/09)

c. Respecting discharge, those departments currently using a pre-termination hearing shall not be required to have a conference as contemplated hereinabove provided that the time between notification and hearing shall be at least five (5) days and further provided that there shall be no change to current practices regarding violations of applicable federal laws. (Amended 09/09/03, 01/06/04, 8/25/09)

d. The employee is entitled to have a representative of their choice assist them in the preparation and presentation of their response, provided further that in the event the representative is an employee of the City, he shall use vacation leave or personal days for such time as may be required for the representative to attend the conference. If the employee does not have any accrued vacation or personal days, the employee will be placed on unpaid administrative leave for such time as may be required for the representative to attend the conference. The employee must provide his Department Head with two days notice of the request to take the above leave. The Department Head may disapprove the request if the leave significantly interferes with the operational needs of the department. (Amended 09/09/03, 01/06/04, 8/25/09)

e. Disciplinary action must be taken against an employee within 80 working days after the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the discipline or from the date that the Department Head knew or should have known that disciplinary action is appropriate, whichever is later, provided however that this period of limitation shall be tolled if an investigation is being conducted by a law enforcement authority into criminal charges against the employee arising out of the same incident. Once a Department Head receives notice from the employee that charges have been preferred, through an indictment or information, or that the criminal investigation has been concluded without the preferal of charges, then the time period will resume running. (Amended 09/09/03, 01/06/04, 8/25/09)

f. Any issue of non-compliance with these provisions will be considered by the hearing officer and/or Commission upon the appeal of the disciplinary action. (Amended 01/06/04)

g. In computing any time periods set forth in this Rule, Saturdays, Sundays, and City Holidays shall not be included. (Amended 01/06/04)

i. A copy of this Rule shall be attached to each notice of proposed disciplinary action. (Passed 1/6/04)

Section 4. Resignation Before Appeal Decision.

The acceptance by Department Head of the resignation of a person discharged before final action on the part of the Commission will be considered a withdrawal of the charges and the separation of the employee concerned will be recorded as a resignation and the proceeding will be dismissed without judgment. (Amended 7/31/07)

Section 5. Disqualification for Reappointment.

Any employee who is dismissed for cause or who resigns while not in good standing will be disqualified from taking a Civil Service examination for two years thereafter. His name will be removed from all eligible lists, unless, in the judgment of the Commission the cause of his dismissal or resignation under charges will not affect the possibility of his usefulness in some other position. (Amended 8/25/09)

Section 6. Non-Certification of Suspended Persons.

The names of persons suspended will not be certified from eligible lists during the period of suspension.

Section 7. Election to Forfeit Annual Leave.

Regular employees suspended for not more than ten (10) working days may elect to forfeit annual leave for a period equal to the suspension, or to the extent of the employee's annual leave balance, subject to the approval of the Department Head. The election provided for herein, shall work a waiver of the employee's right to appeal the disciplinary action to the Commission, and the employee shall be so advised in plain English on a suitable form upon which the election shall be made, as developed by the Human Resources Director and appended to the notice of suspension. The Department Head shall not unreasonably withhold approval of the employee's election. (Added 05/11/04, Amended 7/31/07)

Section 8. Formal Counseling.

Formal Counseling is not within the type of disciplinary action specified in Section 6.13-2 of the Charter which may be appealed to the Civil Service Commission. A formal counseling is issued by the Department Head and considered a written counseling to address employee workplace conduct. Employees receiving a formal counseling shall have the right to place responses to the formal counseling into their personnel files which shall remain in the file so long as the formal counseling to which the response relates remains in the file. Upon an employee's request, a formal counseling shall be removed from an employee's personnel file after the expiration of twenty-four (24) months from the date of the formal counseling, provided the employee has not received any disciplinary action during that time period. A formal counseling, once removed from the employee's file, shall not be considered against the employee for purposes of determining progressive discipline or performance evaluations. (Added 8/25/09)(Amended 11/2/10, 3/6/12)

The granting of a motion for continuance shall be within the sound discretion of the hearing officer or Commission which shall not be bound by the agreement of the parties with respect to the motion.

Section 4. The Rule as to Witnesses

Any party to Commission proceedings may invoke the Rule as to witnesses as known to the practice in the District Courts of the State of Texas, and the Commission or Hearing Officer may, on their own motion, impose such rule; the effect of which will be to exclude from the hearing room all witnesses, except the Department Head or their representative and the appellant, while other witnesses are being questioned or other testimony given. Section 1. Lay-Offs.

a. When a lay-off of employees is necessary in accordance with Article VI, 6.10-1 of the Charter, notice of such proposed lay-off will be provided to the Human Resources Director immediately. The Human Resources Director will certify to the appropriate Department Head the names of the employees to be laid off, and will coordinate all procedures to effect the lay-off. (Amended 7/31/07)

b. In certifying the names of the employees to be laid off, in the case of a tie in the amount of seniority of regular, classified employees in the affected positions, the Human Resources Director will certify for lay-off the employees with the lowest regularly scheduled efficiency ratings based on an average of the last three rating periods. If a tie still exists, the Human Resources Director will certify for lay-off the employees with the most recent date of regular appointment to the current class. If a tie still exists, the Human Resources Director will certify for lay-off by using a system of drawing by lot. (Amended 9/8/87 and 6/3/97, 7/31/07)

At least thirty calendar days prior to the actual lay-off date, the Human Resources Director will freeze the filling of all City vacancies in the same occupational group at or below the class grade of the affected employees. No such vacancy will be filled without first considering the eligibility of affected employees for the vacant positions. The Human Resources Director will attempt to place affected employees in such vacancies in accordance with Section 2 of this Rule within the thirty day period. This procedure will not affect vacancies which occur after the thirty days.

d. The Human Resources Director will counsel all affected employees to insure that all such employees are aware of their rights and obligations during the lay-off.
(Section 1.e eliminated 7/31/07)

Section 2. Job Rights.

One opportunity to be appointed to a vacant position at or below the employee's class grade at the time of removal will be offered to each employee to be laid off in the order of the employee's seniority with the City. In the event of multiple lay-offs, the Human Resources Director will ensure that the most senior employees receive the greatest rights hereunder.

Any budgeted and authorized vacancy which exists in the Civil Service for which the person meets the minimum qualification requirements as set forth in the job classification that is at or below the current position held at the time of lay off will be evaluated for possible placement. The Human Resources director may order a qualifying examination be given to determine if the individual possesses all the minimum qualifications.

The refusal of an employee to accept an offer to fill a vacancy made under this section will result in the employee being laid off and placed on a reinstatement list.

If no vacancy exists in any of the above categories, the employee will have the right to displace a person in a position in a lower class in the same class series in which the employee is currently serving. If no such position exists, then the employee will have the right to displace a person in a class series in which the employee to be laid off has previously served. Displacement rights will be given to employees in order of their seniority. No person may be displaced in any action if the person holding the position has greater seniority than the employee claiming the right to displace.

If a person accepts a position, either through filling a vacancy or displacement, at a lower grade, the person, if otherwise qualified, may take promotional examinations for any class above the new grade in which he is now placed. No person who accepts appointment to a vacant position or displaces another person under this section shall be placed on a reinstatement list for the position from which the person was removed. (Amended 7/31/07)

Section 3. Reinstatement From Lay-Off.

Individuals on reinstatement lists as a result of a lay-off who are interested in reinstatement to a specific position in any City department must notify the Human Resources Director in writing of such interest. If the Human Resources Director has already certified the names to a vacancy when such notification arrives, that certification will not be canceled, but the individual will be contacted prior to certifying names for future vacancies in which the individual has expressed an interest. If an examination announcement for the vacancy has been posted, the individual must notify the Human Resources Director of his interest in the position no later than the last day of the filing period for the examination. (Amended 8/25/09)

(5) If a classified employee is not satisfied with the findings and determinations, he may appeal to the Civil Service Commission within ten working days from the date the Human Resources Director's determination is e-mailed or delivered to the grievant. The time limits set forth herein are jurisdictional and may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties at any time. Failure by the grievant to comply with the prescribed time limits or the mutually agreed extensions, except for good cause, will result in denial of further processing of the grievance. Failure by management to comply with its prescribed time limits or the mutually agreed extensions will allow the grievant to avail himself of the next higher level in the process. The burden of proof in a non-disciplinary grievance is upon the employee by a preponderance of the evidence. (Passed 02/23/88) (Amended 01/9/96, 8/25/09, 3/6/12)
