

ITEM 4:

"Convalescent, nursing or rest home" means a personal care facility that provides nursing and convalescent care under the direction and supervision of licensed medical personnel for four or more unrelated recipients.

"Assisted living facility" means an establishment that furnishes food and shelter and provides personal care services to four or more persons who are unrelated to the proprietor of the establishment.

"Intermediate care facility." See "Group home."

"Group home" is an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation (ICF-MR) that provides medicaid-funded residential services to individuals with mental retardation or a related condition. These group homes are licensed and certified by the Texas department of aging and disability services.

"Personal care facility (residential or commercial)" means a facility which is not a family home, where room, board and personal care services are furnished for twenty-four hours a day to any personal care recipient who is unable to provide for his own personal needs without such assistance, whether or not the facility charges for the services it provides.

"Personal care services" means services of a protective nature that are in excess of room and board. These services include, but are not limited to:

1. Assistance with meals, dressing, movement, bathing, or other personal needs or maintenance;
2. The administration of medication by a person licensed to administer medication or the assistance with or supervision of medication; or
3. General supervision or oversight of the physical and mental well-being of a person who needs assistance to maintain a private and independent residence in an assisted living facility or who needs assistance to manage the person's personal life, regardless of whether a guardian has been appointed for the person.
